We are here to help you increase your skills at home and in the community.

Please note: services and classes can be done individually or as a group and more classes will be added as needed. If you would like more information or would like to suggest a class, please contact us. In addition to direct services, we can offer information and referral to organizations and groups.

Class Notes:

- The IL Skills class is for anyone needing to work on basic skills.
- All classes/activities are for anyone age 18+.
- There is a small cost associated with some of the classes and activities as noted.
- Bowling costs are $2.50 for 1 hour. If you have your own bowling shoes it costs $2.00 for the hour. Bring EXACT change! Snacks: $ vary
- Bus training is available from UILC.

Consumers: Some of our skills classes have a suggested donation cost listed. If you are unable to donate, we still want you to come be part of the class! Bowling and some Wednesday outings cost and need to be paid by you.

Ongoing Classes

- Independent Living Skills class every Monday 12:30-1:30 pm
- Additional IL Skills Class will be added as needed. These classes rotate and include skills such as: interviewing for jobs, budget, sewing, etc,
- Wednesdays: Outings twice a month and Games/Movies twice a month. 12 –4:00 pm (12-3:00 on game day)
- One on One Skills appointments available
- Bowling every Thursday 2:00 pm
- Visit our website: uilc.org

Transportation Notes:

- Community outings originate at our office and end at the location of activity or at the office. You can drop off at our office and we will transport to location. Each person is responsible to arrange transportation. Please be on time.
- We encourage all our consumers to use public transportation with the UTA bus for Tooele and the Tooele County Shuffle for Grantsville and Stansbury areas. 435-843-4114. Cost is $1.25 each way. Family picks you up at location.
- Our center offers limited transportation to consumers. Please call 435-843-7353 to schedule.
